BRITISH POLITICS.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—Mr. Gladstone, accompanied by Sir Algernon Edward West, left Carlton gardens at noon today, en route for Osborne house, Isle of Wight, to lay before her majesty the names of those who will comprise his cabinet, and to carry out the old custom of kissing the hand of the sovereign. Notwithstanding rumors as to his physical condition, Mr. Gladstone appeared to be remarkably sprightly. Crowds gathered at Carlton gardens and at the railroad stations, and when Mr. Gladstone appeared he was heartily cheered.

Upon his arrival at Osborne house the queen's private secretary received him at the entrance and conducted him to the apartments prepared for him. After Mr. Gladstone had partaken of luncheon, the queen gave him audience and he kissed her hand, in accordance with the established usage.

On his appointment as premier, Mr. Gladstone submitted the names of the members of his cabinet.

The queen's dinner guests at Osborne house tonight included, besides Mr. Gladstone, the prince of Wales, the duke of Connaught, Prince Henry of Battenberg and the earl of Dufferin.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—Mr. Gladstone will take the office of lord privy seal as well as that of first lord of the treasury. Lord Brassey will be secretary of state for the colonies, and Mr. Morley, president of the local government board; Earl Spencer, first lord of the admiralty; Lord John Manners, chief secretary for Ireland; Right Hon. W. J. M. Russell, president of the board of trade; Sir Charles Russell, attorney general; John Lubbock, secretary of state for the colonies; and Lord Salisbury, lord chancellor of Ireland; Mr. Gladstone, lord chancellor of England; and Mr. Morley, lord chancellor of Scotland.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—In the house of lords today Lord Salisbury formally announced that, in consequence of the resignation of Lord Brassey, he had accepted the office of lord privy seal.

CHICAGO IRISH-AMERICANS.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—One of the greatest gatherings of Irish-Americans ever held in the west assembled today in Ogden grove. The occasion was the announcement that M. V. Gannon of Omaha, president of the Irish National League of America, would be present at the annual meeting of the Irish-American societies of Chicago, and the knowledge that the view of the just accomplished accession of Mr. Gladstone and the resulting crisis in the home rule movement, the gathering would possess widespread significance. Besides Mr. Gannon the speakers were John F. Finerty and Matthew P. Brady, each of whom was enthusiastically cheered by the huge throng.

J. J. Fitzgibbon, president of the South Chicago National bank, acted as chairman.

Resolutions were adopted declaring that if the British parliament, persecuted by the evil spirit of the past, should again dash from Ireland the cup of peace and justice, it should be the duty of all who abhor tyranny and love liberty to consistently use every means to right the intolerable wrongs that have made the land a by-word among the nations. The resolutions were adopted by a vote of 100 to 10.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 15.—The sixth annual picnic of the United Irish societies was held today at Coney Island park. Ten thousand people were present and were addressed by Congressman Tarsney.

AN ABSCONDER.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—There was a run on this afternoon of a defalcation in Wall street. A defalcation of $100,000 was learned that a clerk of the firm of Lazard Freres had disappeared with a draft for $500 which had been given him to have cashed. Up to a late hour tonight he had not returned with the money.

THE DRAIN OF GOLD.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—A crucial test of the financial policy of the government was made today when the Reichsbank-Yekeller mint tendered $1,000,000 in treasury notes, which were issued on account of silver purchases, and demanded for them $1,000,000 in gold for shipment to Germany by tomorrow's steamer. The treasury officials made no demur, but paid out $1,000,000 in gold in exchange for the treasury notes, and the load was carted away and put on the steamer.

The transaction caused some comment, as no home institution or home banking firm has ever in the history of the government made a like demand on the treasury. In some quarters the impression prevailed that the exporting firm took this step, not so much to make a profit on the shipment, which in itself is too insignificant for the banking firm to consider, but really for the purpose of forcing a crisis.

Transit agent Robert admitted that it was the first time such a demand had been made, although gold has heretofore been given partly for old and partly for new treasury notes. He said, in reply to a question:

"No steps have been taken by the administration to prevent or obstruct the export of gold. The government stands ready to meet all its obligations in gold and will pay them in gold. Its free gold balance now amounts to $12,000,000. It is clear that the government has already decided on a plan to pay all the silver treasury notes in gold if it is demanded."

President Cleveland's demand of the Fourth National bank, said that he did not think the gold surplus would be reduced at present, but that it would be increased in the treasury is now receiving gold from the eastern banks for transshipment to the west, and in the west is paying out currency on account of these shipments.

By this step last year, the government increased its gold holdings $14,000,000.

RAILWAY RACKET.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 15.—Jay Gould may not gain control of the Kansas City, Wyandotte and Northwestern road—at least not until a suit filed this afternoon in the district court of Wyandotte county, Kan., is settled. It has been generally thought that he had the road practically in his possession, but it has not been actually turned over to him. The suit is brought by C. S. W. Drought of Kansas City, Kan., against the Southwest Construction company to recover $350,000 damages for breach of contract. The company had agreed to build a road from Kansas City to Wyandotte, but failed to do so.

The reduced rates on lumber to Missouri river have been a subject of discussion for some time. It is now understood that the new rates are not to be permanent and there is a perfect understanding between the Milwaukee and St. Paul roads, which will result in a reduction of 3 cents per 100 pounds from Eau Claire, in obedience to the order of the interstate commerce commission, and the other roads which make corresponding reductions from all points affected thereby. An official of one of the western roads said today:

"The reduced rates were put in effect to demonstrate to the interstate commerce commission that the object desired could be gained by carrying out its order. In my opinion rates will be advanced within a month."

AN ALLIANCE SECRET SOCIETY.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—A Washington special to the World says: "A highly interesting story, communicated to the World correspondent today, reveals the existence of an oath-bound order within the Alliance known as the Band of Gideon. This band, as the story goes, was organized by Dr. Macneue and others at the Ocala meeting two years ago. It was organized at that meeting and is said to embrace in membership at present all or nearly all of the Alliance leaders. Its object is to strike the blow which will place the Alliance in control. The plan of this secret society, as laid down by Dr. Macneue, was simple. It contemplated the raising of a political party in each congressional district in the Union, whose object was to be the spreading of the Alliance doctrine."

CHANDLER NOTES.

CHANDLER, O. T., Aug. 13.—[Special.]—S. B. Meyer has purchased the bank building and the assets of the Bank of Oklahoma and has assumed its liabilities, agreeing to pay 90 cents on the dollar to the depositors. W. T. Belford, one of the directors of the bank, assumes the remaining 10 cents on the dollar. W. D. Lindsay, W. D. Tyler and M. P. Wright are consequently relieved from all civil and criminal prosecutions. Mr. Meyer is now putting things in shape and will open the Farmers' and Merchants' bank at the old stand of the Bank of Oklahoma, Monday morning, Aug. 15. Mr. Meyer has the reputation of being a first-class business man. The capital stock will be $100,000, furnished entirely by Mr. Meyer. This will prove a boon to the citizens of county A. There is no doubt that the bank will do a good business.

Judge Green adjourned court today. He goes first to Guthrie and thence to Stillwater, where he opens court Tuesday morning. The Normal Institute closed a two week's session Friday. This morning there were no tidings from it.

POLITICAL NOTES.

GOVERNOR BUCHANAN BOLTS THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

The Tennessee Executive Angling for an Indorsement by the Third Party Convention.

President Clarkson Announces a Change in the Date for Holding the Proposed Republican League Meeting.

A New York Paper Announces the Discovery of a Secret Society Within the Ranks of the Farmers' Alliance—St. John Starts Out on His Campaign in Kansas—A Texas Political Killing Match—Notes.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 15.—John P. Buchanan, governor of Tennessee, has bolted the nominees of the Democratic party for governor, and today, in a lengthy address, announced that he is an independent candidate for governor and asks the vote of all citizens regardless of past party affiliations. He bases his candidacy upon the allegations that he has been called upon by a majority of the rank and file of the party to run, that he and his friends have been treated badly by the Democratic conventions, county and state; that he represented the true principles of Democracy, and that the Democratic convention which refused to nominate him renounced the true principles of Democracy.

The People's party meet in state convention Thursday next to nominate a candidate for governor, and this fact has led to Mr. Buchanan's announcement of his candidacy. He will be indorsed by the People's party.

KANSAS PROHIBITION. TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 15.—The campaign of the Kansas Prohibition party was opened here tonight by ex-Governor John P. St. John. Mr. St. John will make eight speeches during the campaign, his principal object being to defeat A. W. Smith, J. O. Pickering, prohibition candidate for governor, and J. M. Montgomery, candidate for congressman-at-large, also spoke. The state central committee was in session this afternoon trying to find a candidate for congress in the Fourth district to place on the ticket, caused by the refusal of Rev. J. W. Stewart of Emporia to make the race. Mr. St. John will speak at Hiawatha tomorrow and at Belleville on Wednesday.

POLITICAL KILLINGS. SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Aug. 15.—News has been received here from the Rio Grande county, to the effect that a bloody and sanguinary tragedy occurred there today. The People's party was holding a convention there and a quarrel over politics occurred. A. C. Perkins, a prominent politician, on one side, and Davis and Burton Brown on the other. When the convention adjourned the battle began. All four of the men were armed with pistols and knives. Simultaneously they began firing, and when the pistols were empty they closed in with their knives and fought a desperate hand-to-hand battle. After they fell to the ground they kept on slashing one another until two were dead and the other two so badly injured that they will die.

REPUBLICAN CLUBS. NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—J. S. Clarkson, president of the National League of Republican clubs, has issued a notice postponing the date of the Republican national league convention, which was to be held at Buffalo, Sept. 1, to Sept. 15.

This postponement, says the notice, is done with the concurrence and advice of the executive committee of the national committee, because the earlier date will prevent the attendance of a large number of Republican clubs from the western states, whose presence at the enormous crowd will not be justified by Sept. 1. A much larger number of clubs will be able to attend the national convention at a later date.

THE MYSTIC SHRINE.

OMAHA, Aug. 15.—Three thousand nobles, with gleaming lances and brilliant armor, on foot, in carriages and bestride gaily caparisoned camels, wended their way through the oasis of Omaha, this evening. The caravan was a magnificent spectacle, and as it wound around the trail leading from the temple through the haunts of the traders it was greeted with a grand display of burning illumined with pyrotechnics. Twenty thousand people gathered along the line of march and witnessed the grand parade of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Mystic Shrine, now assembled in Omaha. After the parade came a grand reception to the nobles and their ladies, at which they were welcomed by Mayor Benzie and given the key and freedom of the city.

The imperial council opened this morning in Masonic temple. Illustrations of the past were called to the council to order and delivered their annual report. He quoted statistics showing that there were in this country 62 temples and 22,750 nobles, against 13 temples and 425 nobles in 1878. This is a grand achievement for the few years elapsing since the introduction of the order in the western hemisphere, a noble organization whose light once kindled never has been extinguished at any oasis where a charter has been granted.

Mr. Briggs then spoke of the fraternal bond "Among those who have been called from us," he said, "were David Kalakaua, king of the Hawaiian Islands; William J. Florence, Tewfik, Mohammed path, vice roy of the khedive of Egypt; Edward Mitchell, the thirty-third degree right worshipful grand treasurer of the grand lodge of the Free and Accepted Masons of Ontario."

When Mr. Briggs had concluded his address, which contained references to bygone times, and a eulogy on the noble features of the order, it was referred to a special committee appointed for that purpose.

The reports of the imperial treasurer and imperial recorder were then read and referred. The imperial recorder stated that the imperial council had entirely freed from debt and had a balance of $16,000 in the treasury.

After dinner the committee on jurisprudence met and a eulogy on the noble features of the order, it was referred to a special committee appointed for that purpose.

DR. PRICE'S BAKING POWDER. Supplying the Army, Navy and Indian Department.

From the Chicago Inter-Ocean. The purchasing agents of the United States government have ordered nearly 100,000 pounds of Dr. Price's baking powder in the first five months of this year.

The government exercises great care in selecting its supplies of all kinds, rejecting everything that is not of the best, and Dr. Price's baking powder is one of the best. Dr. Price's baking powder is proof that it has found the best of all baking powders. Dr. Price's is particularly adapted for export, and is the best of all baking powders. It is guaranteed to be pure and free from ammonia, alum or other harmful substances, and it is also the only baking powder prepared by a physician of high standing.

THE BORDEN CASE. FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 15.—City Marshal Hillman was yesterday called about fifty editorial, clipped from various New England papers. Most of them reflect a belief in Miss Lizzie Borden's innocence of the crime charged against her, and assail the Fall River police for the prolonged delay in the case and the conduct of the trial.

This case will depend on circumstantial evidence, and as the people's interests cannot be subserved by throwing the evidence into the hands of the defense until a hearing takes place. The public may rest assured that the authorities have ample reasons for holding the girl and that she was not imprisoned in haste. The statement that the $15,000 or $20,000 would be used for the girl's education is untrue and ill-advised.

A majority of these claims arose out of the recent wars between Chile and Peru and Bolivia.

PATTI FAREWELLING.

She Will Probably Keep It Up for Another Twenty-Five Years. A familiar note comes from Craigynose—one the American people often have heard before and one they will continue to hear for many a year to come. It is the voice of Mme. Patti singing that same old chestnut song of one more last farewell tour of the United States. Mme. Patti, observes the Chicago Tribune, has been making farewell tours of this country these last half-dozen years, and each one has been the last, positively the last. Each one would have been the last had the receipts fallen off, but for some inscrutable reason they do not, and this induces Mme. Patti to tear herself away from home, to go through the agony of another heart-rending farewell, to shed briny tears of sorrow, and gather in another fat installment of American dollars. And this she will continue doing, probably, to the end of the century. She is the fin de siècle singer of her time. She may even come up, resolutely if not freshly, persistently if not tuncfully, in the next century and begin a new career even in her old age, for as long as there is an American dollar in sight she will make the effort to reach for it, painful as it may be to her.

It apparently makes little difference that Mme. Patti's repertory is shrinking down to a few threadbare tunes which have become rusty and frayed by long and constant service. It seems to make no difference that each time she comes to say farewell and express her grief she sings worse than she did before. The worse she sings the more she charges, the more she laments, the more the people mourn, and the more freely they pour out their hearts to assure her sweet sorrow at parting. As Mme. Patti is still of robust constitution, apparently has many years before her, and her love of money grows by what it feeds upon, there is apparently no reason why she should not keep on farewell touring for twenty-five years to come, which will bring her to the year of grace 1917, by which time she may not have more than one time left, and that only the ghost of a tune, but that tune will be utilized so long as it can raise a dollar. Anna Bishop and Ole Bull kept on farewell touring until they were in the senility and their voices were white. Then why should not Adeline and Nicoline indulge the same sorrowful and profitable practice? If the American people love to pay for the privilege of saying a last and fond farewell to this amiable couple every year it is not in human nature for them to resist the temptation of an annual display of grief, however wearing it may be.
